

Job Description: Congressional Press Intern

- Engage and thrive in a fast-paced environment.
- Support the communication team with special projects and daily tasks including various constituent outreach, such as newsletters, social media, and press releases.
- Create visual content to assist in the implantation of the content calendar.
- Track real time media coverage and compile daily news clips for internal distribution.
- Attends events on behalf of the office to capture high-quality content.
- Assist with General Congressional Intern responsibilities, such as handling incoming calls, attending briefings, and performing congressional tasks as needed.